

A Note From Our Pastor

Welcome to First Baptist Church of Alachua. I am glad that you have chosen to worship with us today. It is my prayer that God will bless you through this service. I would like the opportunity to get to know you better and let you get to know us. In this bulletin there is a guest information card. If you fill it out, we will make sure you get some information about our church. If we've never met, please feel free to introduce yourself to me after the service. I'd love to meet you.

Priority of Worship

As a part of our worship experience this morning we will sing, pray, receive an offering, read from the Bible, listen to a message, greet one another and maybe a few other things. All of these activities are a part of worship when we do them to bring pleasure to God. Our focus in worship is God Himself rather than the activities or personalities involved. We invite you to turn your thoughts toward Him and express your devotion as we come together for worship.

Missionary Moment

Kristi Emeish has a heart for the people of Madagascar. It is a commitment that has been tested recently as the island nation has been weathering its share of political conflicts. During this time, missionaries to Madagascar attended an annual meeting with colleagues from other parts of Africa. The meeting provided much-needed interaction for the children of these workers and prayer for the adults. While Madagascar's workers wait out the situation in their adopted home, they are humbled by the fact that only six years ago, the IMB had no missionary presence in the country. Kristi is grateful for your prayers and your willingness to combine your efforts with sister churches through the Cooperative Program that provides much-needed encouragement and support during tough times. Add Kristi and the rest of the Madagascar team to your prayer list this week.
